Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1500 on Thursday 10 Jun 2021

UK Outlook for Friday 25 Jun 2021 to Friday 9 Jul 2021:
A good deal of fine and dry weather across much of the UK towards the end of June, although there could be a few showers in places and perhaps some rain in the far north at times. Temperatures are likely to be above average, and warm in the south. By the end of June and into early July, conditions will probably become more unsettled with an increasing chance of rain spreading across the UK.
